

ABOUT US

Meditech Staffing is a registered service provider, specialising in aged care and disability support in the home or within an existing care facility established for more than 20 years.

Our services expand across Greater Sydney, Gosford, and Newcastle.

We can provide a direct service to the client as well as providing well trained, professional staff to a care facility or other service providers.

Our broad range of staff include Registered Nurses, Physiotherapists, Assistants in Nursing and Support Workers experienced in both community and residential care.

“

Anything I have needed, Meditech have gone above and beyond to assist me. I cannot speak highly enough of their staff. As I get older and require more services, I am very confident that I can rely on Meditech to support me and provide me with the help I will need.
